

Michigan Careers in Transition – Chrysler Instruction & Fact Sheet For Employers

Michigan Careers in Transition Services (MCIT) is a new initiative intended to bring together employers and top automotive industry professionals recently re-entering the workforce, due to the economic impacts affecting the Southeast Michigan automobile industry. This is a virtual career exchange to facilitate matching employers and job seekers via the Michigan Talent Bank.

As an employer, you have the opportunity to post job orders and perform resume searches for the candidates you need from the database of affected Chrysler workers. Other features are also available within the Michigan Talent Bank to streamline your recruiting time. Please follow the directions below to begin accessing Michigan Careers in Transition through the Michigan Talent Bank database.

Create a Michigan Talent Bank Employer Account

If you are not currently enjoying the benefits that the Michigan Talent Bank offers employers, please register your company at <https://www.michigan.gov/talentbank> before you register for MCIT. Be sure to look for the Michigan Careers in Transition banner at the top of the page and click on “Employers, click here to find out all about it.”

Register Your Company with Michigan Careers in Transition

You may register for MCIT on the Michigan Talent Bank Employers’ homepage by clicking on the “Register for Michigan Careers in Transition” link. After you register for MCIT, you may wish to edit your information. Please feel free to make changes at any time!

Company Website

Since this is a virtual career exchange, it is necessary to include your company’s career page URL in the MCIT registration form.

Post a Job Order on the Michigan Talent Bank

Generally, no special codes are necessary when posting job orders on the Michigan Talent Bank. However, in order to facilitate employer/job seeker MCIT matching, you will be required to insert MCIT2008A in the Job Title field.
